the City Council, shall participate in submitting names to the City Clerk in the categories where Council Members are to make nominations; and (c) that all members of this Sunshine Task Force must be San José registered voters.

Public Education & Community Outreach Manager Tom Manheim presented an overview presentation of three sections that leads to recommendations approval from original recommendations of the Sunshine Reform Task Force.

Discussion: Mayor Gonzales referenced his memorandum of April 17, 2006, asking that the recommendation in the City Manager's memorandum for the Mayor to appoint a former mayor to the seat reserved for this position, which he requested be dropped.

Extensive Council discussion ensued.

Public Comments:

James Chadwick, San José Mercury News, expressed support.

Ed Rast, UNSCC, spoke in support of the task force.

William Garbett expressed the importance of having San José voters represented.

George Fokos spoke in opposition.

Motion: Council Member Chavez, seconded by Council Member Pyle, moved approval of the framework recommended in the City Manager's memorandum dated April 5, 2006, amended to include ten additional recommendations which she presented to the Council.

Considerable Council discussion ensued.

Assistant City Manager Mark Linder requested Council include a provision allowing for the Academic position to be recruited from outside as well as inside the City of San Jose. Vice Mayor Chavez accepted the friendly amendment. Council Member Pyle approved.

Council Member LeZotte made another request for a friendly amendment that an individual have only one chance to be selected, regardless of more than one nomination. The amendment was accepted by the motion maker and second.

Council Member Chavez added to the motion three methods to encourage the Task Force to work with the community on issues the community considers important (as outlined in the "action" below), and Council Member Pyle accepted the amendment.

Action: On a call for the question, the motion carried, the Staff recommendation dated April 5, 2006, was approved, with the amendments added by Council, as follows: (1) The goals listed in the memo for reforms should be a framework for the Task Force's workplan to which they can add or remove items; (2) Include within the workplan, a clear identification of “what is the problem”; (3) Include in the workplan a mechanism for enforcement; (4) Acknowledge that “actively working on a campaign” means “paid staff”; (5) Members of the Task Force shall be residents, but not be required to be registered to vote; (6) The Task Force should be comprised of 15 members; (7) Eliminate the technical member of the task force and direct staff to bring in a consultant to advise on technical issues; (8) Add a representative from a Community-Based organization; (9) The Task Force should have the option of seeking legal expertise, if needed; (10) Replace the former mayor seat with a neighborhood leader; (11) The academic member does not have to be a resident; (12) Council members should be prepared to provide the City Clerk with alternative nominees, if there are duplicates in the names provided; (13) Encourage the task force to work with the community on issues that the community feels are important by complying with the Brown Act communicating to a wide distribution; (14) Building a workplan that invites people to testify on issues, and (15) Using the Blue Ribbon Task Force model to invite public participation. (11-0).

3.6 Approval of direction to the San José Elections Commission to:

- (a) Take public testimony, seek expert input, and explore the creation of a fully public-funded Voter-owned Campaign Ordinance for San José that would take effect in time to apply to the municipal primary elections in June 2008.
- (b) Provide the Council by August 2006 with an outline of specific recommendations to be included in a Voter-Owned Campaign Ordinance if the Commission recommends that such an ordinance is desirable, or with a report and rationale if it does not recommend such an ordinance.
- (c) Return to the Council with a specific budget request if the Commission determines that it needs additional resources to accomplish this task on schedule.

HEARD IN THE EVENING

Documents Filed: Memorandum from Mayor Gonzales, dated March 23, 2006, recommending Council take the specified action as detailed therein.

Mayor Gonzales summarized his memorandum and recommendations. Council questions followed.

Tom Mertens, Chair of the San José Elections Commission, responded to an inquiry from Council Member Campos about the Commission’s current workload. Chair Mertens expressed some concern about the proposed timeline but indicated a willingness to take up with the Commission the issue. He noted the Commission could come up with a Work Plan and timeline, and report back to Council.

Council Member Campos emphasized the need to gain public input on the concept by a socio-economic diverse group of citizens.

Mayor’s Budget and Policy Director Joe Guerra, responded to additional questions.

Public Comments:

Paul Turner (Greenlining Institute); Alicia Lanier, (Santa Clara County Democratic Club); Brian Carr; Rob Means; Aurelia Sanchez; Craig Dunkerley (California Clean Money Campaign); Aurelia Sanchez, and Ed Rast spoke in support of considering the proposed concept in San José.

Daniel McCall spoke off topic. William Garbett expressed opposition, stating San José already subsidizes candidates by paying all costs for printing candidate statements in the Voters' Sample Ballots.

Motion: Council Member Chavez moved approval of Mayor Gonzales' memorandum dated March 23, 2006, with amendments pertaining to the San José Elections Commission timelines, an inclusive strategy, procedures used by other cities; and projected staffing needs. Council Member Campos seconded the motion.

Council Member Yeager suggested the motion include review of the need to expand the commission, considering sub-committee work, and consider any appropriate restrictions pertaining to financing negative campaigns.

Council Member Campos suggested that all research data should be shared with the San José Elections Commission.

Action: On a call for the question, the motion carried unanimously, Mayor Gonzales' memorandum dated March 23, 2006, was approved, with the following additions. (1) Direction to the Elections Commission to report back in May to Council with a timeline and a more inclusive process; (2) Direction to the Elections Commission to exam how other cities/regents have put Voter-Owned Campaigns to a vote; (3) Staff directed to report back to Council as to what staffing needs are necessary; (4) Elections Commission requested to review possibilities for expanding the Commission for this purpose and/or consider sub-committee work. The Commission was also asked to review any stipulations that would prevent negative campaigning by those who use public funds for their campaigns; (5) Staff and Council Members agreed to share all research with the Elections Commission. (11-0).
